

Coram Deo Classical Academy
Student Questionnaire

Sixth Grade and Up

Coram Deo Classical Academy requires that all applicants submit answers to the following questions so that we may become more familiar with you and your work. Please honestly answer each question on your own. Please add an additional sheet if needed.

1. Tell us about yourself and your interests and activities, including classes, music, drama, art, athletics, church groups, etc. Be specific. _____

2. What does it mean to be a Christian?

3. Tell about the last book you read for pleasure and what you gained from it.

4. How much time outside of class are you accustomed to spending on required homework assignments per week? _____

5. What do you consider to be acceptable reasons to fail to complete an assignment or to turn one in after it was due?

6. In the classic Fahrenheit 451, Ray Bradbury describes a world in which the government has banned all books and the country's fire departments seek out and burn any existing personal libraries. A small group of people dedicate their lives to memorizing books (Call of the Wild, for instance) and transmitting them to the next generation. If you lived in such a world and had to choose one book to memorize and pass on (other than the Scriptures, whose infinite worth is without question), what book would you choose? What universal truths does the book communicate that make it valuable for people in every time and place?

7. Give an example of someone who has exhibited good character and tell how he has demonstrated virtue. Feel free to use examples from history, from literature, or from personal experience. Why is such virtue important?

8. Do you personally desire to attend Coram Deo Classical Academy? Yes _____ No _____
